You don't have to cook. Why bother these hot days over a crusting hot stove in baking bread, pies and cakes when we will deliver them at your door daily. We use the highest grades of flour, lard, butter and other ingredients, and extraordinary care out of our oven is guaranteed to be the best. Our long reputation for honesty in goods in this city is behind every sale and all you have to do is to say the word and we will attend to your wants in this bakery line.BUILDING LOCKOUT IS CRUMBLING
OF OWN WEIGHT

LONDON, August 1.—The big lock-out of builders, which has held up building operations in London for months, is slowly crumbling without any definite settlement, and the army of ironworkers, masons, carpenters and other men, are returning to their work.The lockout arose from a number of sectional strikes, the men demanding better wages and shorter hours.
Negotiations went on for week after week without any result, except for the members of the big and wealthy trades unions, who secured better terms and have now returned to work, leaving the smaller unions, which refused all terms offered by the contractors, to shift for themselves. As these smaller unions are nearly bankrupt, the members are expected to follow the example of the more wealthy unions.The story of the struggle shows how the men are revolting against the old leadership system. Three times the men refused terms agreed upon by their leaders.SARGENT DECLINES TO PAINT PORTRAITS

LONDON, August 1.—John S. Sargent has declined a handsome commission to paint a portrait of Victor J. Dowling for the Manhattan club of New York and has reaffirmed his decision not to paint any more portraits. To John W. Cox, who made the offer to Mr. Sargent on behalf of the Manhattan club, the eminent painter said the portrait of Henry James, which was damaged by suffrages while on exhibition at the Royal academy, was painted in accordance with an old promise, otherwise he would not have attempted even that one after making his announcement that he was done with portrait painting.Mr. Sargent is now devoting himself to landscape, in which he has made almost as great a success as he did with portraits. He is now completing some work for the Boston library, the decoration of which was in the hands of the late Mr. Abbey at the time of his death.For quick results try the want ad columns of the Bonanza.

DREADNAUGHT TO BELONG TO BRAZIL

LONDON, August 1.—The Brazilian government has placed a contract with a British firm for a battleship to take the place of the one sold to Turkey and now known as the Sultan Osman. The new vessel will be the most powerful armor-clad warship in the world and will greatly exceed in offensive power and defensive qualities any battleship at present afloat.
She total length will be 620 feet and the width 94 feet, while the tonnage will amount up to 30,500 tons.
She will carry eight 15-inch guns, fourteen six-inch shells, ten four-inch guns and two torpedo tubes. On the belt, barbettes and gun shields, the protection will include 13½ inch armor.In some of the latest British battleships now building, 15-inch guns will be mounted, but the stoutest armor today is only 12 inches thick.THREE MEALS DAILY FOR POOR CHILDREN

LONDON, August 1.—Having gained their point that the state should provide children of poor parents with one meal a day at the schools, a section of the labor party is now pressing for three meals, beds and other comforts for the pupils in the poorer districts.The government will be asked to embody in the promised education bill such proposals as these:
Specialists in physical culture to be appointed for every elementary school.Waste land to be used by local authorities for erecting movable buildings wherein the children can be educated and given sleeping accommodation when necessary.Bathing and washing facilities to be provided in schools, parks and public playgrounds.Three meals a day to be provided to scholars from public feeding centers.Certificates of location on sale at the Bonanza office.

since its inception a decade ago.LONDON, Aug. 1.—That eminently satisfactory profits may be derived from the draping of those creations of fashion popularly known as Paris gowns and mantles is shown by some figures just made public. The annual report of a certain English company that was formed to take over a dressmaking and fur business carried on in Paris and Vienna dis-closes gross profits for 1913 of $789, 500 (or $79,500 more than in 1912, and net profits of $461,785. After writing off $50,000 from preliminary expenses, $5,500 for depreciation of furniture and fittings, transferring $50,000 to the reserve, in addition to the sum of $37,500 set aside for the payment of French taxes, and paying a dividend of 7 per cent for the year on the preferred ordinary shares (par value $20), there was $268,250 available for distribution among the shareholders. This was disbursed in the form of a 5 per cent supplemental dividend on the preferred ordinary shares, making 12 per cent for the year, and the payment of nine shillings per share, equal to 900 per cent, on the deferred stock. The company has maintained these dividend rates
